Insertion of Chapter 3B in Act 32 of 1998

6. The following Chapter is hereby inserted in the principal Act after Chapter 3A:

“CHAPTER 3B

Appointment, remuneration and conditions of service of investigators

Appointment of investigators

19D. (1) The National Director may, on the recommendation of the head of an Investigating Directorate, appoint fit and proper persons as investigators of that Directorate.

- (2) A person appointed as an investigator—
- (a) must have at least a grade 12 certificate or a relevant diploma or degree; and
- (b) must have—
- (i) knowledge and relevant experience of criminal or forensic financial investigation; or
- (ii) any other relevant experience.
- (3) The National Director must, in the prescribed form, issue and sign an identity-type document to each person appointed as an investigator of that Directorate, which shall serve as proof that such person is an investigator.

Vetting of investigators

- 19E. (1) Subject to subsection (2), no person may be appointed as an investigator, unless the person has been issued with a security clearance certificate following a vetting investigation conducted in terms of section 2A of the National Strategic Intelligence Act, 1994 (Act No. 39 of 1994).
- (2) Any investigator may from time to time, or at such regular intervals as the National Director may determine, be subjected to a further vetting investigation as contemplated in subsection (1).
- (3) If the certificate referred to in subsection (1) is withdrawn, the National Director, after consultation with the State Security Agency and subject to section 2A(8) of the National Strategic Intelligence Act, 1994, may discharge the investigator concerned from the Investigating Directorate, following any disciplinary process.”

Remuneration and conditions of service of investigators

- 19F. (1) The remuneration, allowances and other service benefits of investigators are determined by the Minister, in consultation with the National Director, the Cabinet member responsible for public service and administration and the Cabinet member responsible for finance, by notice in the Gazette.
- (2)(a) If an officer or employee in the public service is appointed as an investigator, the period of his or her service as an investigator shall be calculated as part of and continuous with his or her employment in the public service, for purposes of leave credits, pension benefits and any other condition of service, and the provisions of any pension law applicable to him or her or, in the event of his or her death, to his or her dependants, which are not inconsistent with this section, shall, with the necessary changes, continue to apply to such officer or employee.
- (b) If a member of the South African Police Service, or the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation referred to in Chapter 6A of the South African Police Service Act, 1995 (Act No. 68 of 1995), or the Independent Police Investigative Directorate, is appointed as an investigator under this Act, the period of his or her service as a member shall be calculated as part of and continuous with his or her employment under the South African Police Service Act, 1995, or the Independent Police Investigative Directorate Act, 2011 (Act No. 1 of 2011), as the case may be, for purposes of leave, deemed pensionable service accrued and any other condition of service, and the provisions of any pension law applicable to him or her or, in the event of his or her death, to his or her dependants, which are not inconsistent with this section, shall, with the necessary changes, continue to apply to such officer or employee.
- (3) The services of investigators in the Investigating Directorate shall, for the purposes of the application of Chapter IV of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995), be deemed to have been designated as an essential service in terms of section 71 of that Act.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the other conditions of service of investigators shall be determined in terms of the provisions of the Public Service Act: Provided that if a member of the South African Police Service, the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, or the Independent Police Investigative Directorate is appointed as an investigator under this Act, the conditions of service, including remuneration, allowances, pension and other service benefits applicable to such investigator, must be equal to, or not less favourable than, those conditions of service applicable to such investigator under the South African Police Service Act, 1995, or the Independent Police Investigative Directorate Act, as the case may be.”

Amendment of section 22 of Act 32 of 1998

7. Section 22 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (7) of the following subsection:

“(7) The National Director shall develop, in consultation with the Minister or a person authorised thereto by the Minister, and the Directors, training programmes for prosecutors and investigators.”

Insertion of section 22A in Act 32 of 1998

8. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 22:

“Complaints mechanism and accountability

22A. (1)(a) The Minister shall, after consultation with the Chief Justice, appoint a retired judge for a non-renewable period of five years in order to investigate complaints or any alleged improper conduct or any conduct which has resulted in any impropriety or prejudice on the part of any person referred to in section 7(4)(a).

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a) ‘retired judge’ shall mean a judge discharged from active service as referred to in the Judges’ Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001 (Act No. 47 of 2001).

(2) The performance of the functions provided for in respect of a retired judge does not derogate from the powers of the South African Police Service or Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation to investigate any criminal conduct in respect of any person referred to in section 7(4)(a).

(3) The retired judge shall not investigate complaints about intelligence matters falling under the jurisdiction of the Inspector-General of Intelligence.

(4) The retired judge may receive complaints in the prescribed form and manner from—

(a) any person who may provide evidence of a serious and unlawful infringement of his or her rights caused by the conduct of a person referred to in section 7(4)(a); or

(b) any person referred to in section 7(4)(a), who may provide evidence of any improper influence or interference, hindrance or obstruction, whether of a political or any other nature, exerted upon him or her in the exercise, carrying out or performance of his or her powers, duties and functions.

(5) The retired judge may, upon receipt of a complaint in terms of subsection (4), investigate such complaint or refer it to be dealt with by the National Commissioner of Police, the relevant Director, the National Director or the Inspector-General of Intelligence.

(6) The retired judge shall report to the Minister the outcome of any investigation undertaken by him or her or any referral in terms of subsection (5).

(7)(a) The retired judge may request and obtain information from any member of the prosecuting authority in so far as it may be necessary for the retired judge to conduct an investigation.

(b) The refusal to comply with a request by the retired judge in terms of paragraph (a) shall be a criminal offence for which a person, upon conviction, may be sentenced to a fine or imprisonment of two years, or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(8) To the extent that it is reasonably necessary for the performance of the functions of the retired judge, he or she—

(a) may obtain information and documents under the control of the prosecuting authority;

(b) may enter any building or premises under the control of the prosecuting authority in order to obtain such information and documents; and

(c) shall be entitled to all reasonable assistance by any person referred to in section 7(4)(a) or any other member of the prosecuting authority.

(9) The retired judge shall report annually to Parliament on the performance of his or her functions.

(10) The National Director may request the retired judge to investigate any complaint or allegation referred to in subsections (1) and (4) relating to a prosecution or an investigation conducted by an Investigating Directorate.

(11) If a structure contemplated in section 22(5) receives any complaint or allegation referred to in subsections (1) and (4), such structure shall refer the complaint or allegation to the retired judge to investigate.

(12) Any person who makes a complaint in terms of this section shall not be entitled to use this section to establish whether there is an investigation against him or her, nor be entitled to any delay, interference or termination of such investigation on the basis that such complaint has been made.

(13) The Minister shall ensure that the retired judge has sufficient personnel and resources to fulfil his or her functions.”

Insertion of section 29A in Act 32 of 1998

9. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 29:

“Powers and functions of investigators

29A. (1) An investigator may, subject to the control and direction of a head of an Investigating Directorate, exercise such powers and must perform such duties as are conferred or imposed upon him or her by or under this Act, or any other law and must obey all lawful directions which he or she may receive from a person having the authority to give such directions.

(2) An investigator has the same powers as a peace officer or a police official as provided for in the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), including—

(a) the investigation of offences;

(b) the ascertainment of bodily features of an accused person;

(c) the entry and search of premises;

(d) the seizure and disposal of articles;

(e) arrests;

(f) the execution of warrants;

(g) the attendance of an accused person in court; and

(h) the service or execution of any subpoena or summons.

(3) An investigator has the same powers as if he or she had been appointed deputy sheriff or deputy messenger or other similar officer of the court.

(4)(a) The Minister may, in consultation with the Cabinet member responsible for police, by notice in the Gazette, confer upon investigators any power—

(i) which is conferred by applicable law upon specified persons or a category of persons; and

- (ii) which relates to the prevention, investigation or combating of any offence or other criminal or unlawful activity.
- (b) Any notice referred to in paragraph (a)—
- (i) may be amended or rescinded by the Minister in consultation with the Cabinet member responsible for police; and
- (ii) must be submitted to Parliament before publication in the Gazette.”

Insertion of section 43C in Act 32 of 1998

10. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 43B:

“Transitional arrangements relating to Investigating Directorates

43C. (1) For purposes of this section, the phrase ‘the Investigating Directorate’ means the Investigating Directorate, established by Proclamation No. 20 of 2019.

(2) The Investigating Directorate shall, as from the date of the commencement of the National Prosecuting Authority Amendment Act, 2024, cease to exist as a separate Investigating Directorate and shall become part of the Investigating Directorate against Corruption.

(3) Proclamation No. 20 of 2019, in respect of existing offences or categories of offences as determined by the President therein, which had been issued under section 7(1) in respect of the Investigating Directorate prior to the amendment of section 7(1) by the National Prosecuting Authority Amendment Act, 2024, shall, as from the date of the commencement of that Act, be deemed to have been issued under section 7(1A) with the necessary changes in respect of the Investigating Directorate against Corruption.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Investigating Director and all staff of the Investigating Directorate shall be retained, remain in office and continue their functions under this Act in the Investigating Directorate against Corruption.

(5) From the date of the commencement of the National Prosecuting Authority Amendment Act, 2024, all pending matters pertaining to the Investigating Directorate shall be dealt with as if that Act had at all times been in force.”

Law amended

11. The law referred to in the second column of the Schedule is hereby amended to the extent indicated in the third column of the Schedule.

Amendment of Index to Act 32 of 1998, as inserted by section 21 of Act 61 of 2000, and amended by Act 56 of 2008
